

Cosmic Wave Feedback

"Noted Nashville studio and road sideman John Calzavara takes the well deserved spotlight on this CD which is inspired but not preachy. His songs transcend the boundaries of any particular faith and focus on what is common to us all."

Ed Salamon
Country Radio Hall of Fame

"I find Cosmic Wave to be peaceful and soothing to the point of washing away worries and anxieties. John is an amazing musician who has sculpted a beautiful work of art. Cosmic Wave is a beautiful album of music that promotes prayer and spiritual reflection."

Brian Edwards

"Great music! Very positive and refreshing like a morning cup of coffee. It is really life asserting, giving you optimism and energy to enjoy every moment of your life."

Sveta Yatsky

"What a pleasure to hear these clear, uplifting sounds. The album leaves you feeling light and happy. You will find yourself smiling at Positively Buoyant, and then meditative over the wonders of Adam's Clay. You are left with an all around peacefulness to ponder this Cosmic Wave we are all riding."

Mary Cantrell

"Melodic and hypnotic. You'll want to hear it over and over again."

"John's music puts me in another place. I can break away the daily grind and settle in a world of smooth colors, calming sounds and fresh air."

Ron Halman

"Only from the genius musical mind of John Calzavara and his latest CD offering, Cosmic Wave, can you hear a little bit of banjo and dobro in jazz tunes you would listen to in your car on a crisp fall day driving down a winding road with the top down."

The multi-instrumentalist sax man can go toe-to-toe with the likes of Dave Koz, Boney James, Candy Dulfer, Gerald Albright, Tom Scott, David Sanborn and Grover Washington, Jr. Catch John's Cosmic Wave. You will want to ride it (and play it) over and over again!"

Lety Perez

"John is a very talented musician. With his debut Cosmic Wave Album his talent really comes through. It is positive, upbeat, refreshing. My favorite track is New Home. I'm already looking forward to his next album."
